

Friends of SOUTHERN OPERA

The Aims of Friends of Southern Opera are to:

- Form an audience-based membership body of supporters of Southern Opera
- Assist in developing and sustaining opera in the South Island
- Raise funds from membership and events to support artists and productions of Southern Opera

Our goal for 2009 is to raise $3,000 towards the cost of a sewing machine and cutting tables for Southern Opera's wardrobe team.

The benefits of being a member of Friends of Southern Opera are:

- Preferential booking for Southern Opera events
- An invitation to a social occasion with a guest speaker
- The opportunity to learn more about the creative process and deepen knowledge and enjoyment of opera
- Early notice of opera-related events
- The pleasure of knowing that your support is assisting Southern Opera, local artists and theatre artisans

Membership

The financial year for membership begins on 1 April. Membership is either single or double (double - to include children under 18 years of age). A full year subscription is $30.00 (single) or $50.00 (double), for a half year (from 1 October to 31 March) subscription is $15.00 (single) or $25.00 (double).
